

Join us for a Relaxed Performance of our beauty of a pantomime...

Oxford Playhouse, Beaumont Street, Oxford

Beauty and the Beast

Relaxed performances: Sun 8 Dec at 11am & Thu 9 Jan at 2pm

Meet Beauty - smart as a whip, bold as brass, and with a heart of pure gold. She's the opposite of the Beast – gruff, rough and in need of a shave. But when Beauty finds herself trapped in a magical castle with the Beast, the two of them have to learn to get along. Will they meet a beastly end? Or have a beautiful 'happily ever after'? One thing's for sure, our mismatched pair will need a hand from you to make their dreams come true.

We have two relaxed performances of Beauty and the Beast taking place: Sun 8 Dec at 11am and Thu 9 Jan at 2pm.

Join us for super singing, dazzling dancing and lashings of slapstick silliness - it'd be beastly to miss it!

What is a Relaxed Performance?

Relaxed Performances are aimed at anyone who would benefit from a laid back environment including people with an Autistic Spectrum Condition, a learning disability or very young children who might be afraid of the dark. The atmosphere in the auditorium will be more relaxed with the house lights partially on. Audience members will be free to come and go as they please throughout the show and make noise if they want to. There will also be a visual story available nearer the time, so audience members can familiarise themselves with Oxford Playhouse and what to expect from the show before they arrive.
