

The tortoise and the hare.

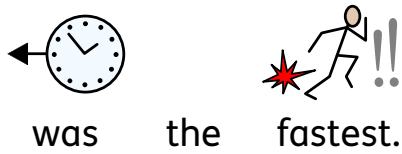

Once there was a tortoise and a hare who were going to have a race.

The hare was sure he was going to win. He was the fastest.

The race started and the hare ran as fast as he could.

The tortoise was slow and steady.

People came to cheer on the tortoise and the hare.

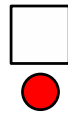

The hare was in the lead.

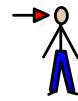

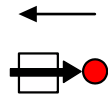

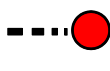

The hare saw some carrots and stopped by a tree.

The hare went to sleep under the tree.

The tortoise walked slowly passed him.

The tortoise got to the finish line first and he won the race.
